July 24 & 25

Trophy glory on horizon for last eight

There will be a new name on the Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy this year – and eight counties are still harbouring dreams of silverware and a day out at Lord's.

Holders Gloucestershire are out of this year's competition following their fourth-round defeat against Durham, who themselves remain in with a chance of being crowned the new kings of one-day cricket.

But Martyn Moxon's charges know a repeat performance will be needed to keep them in the tournament as they now face a daunting trip to Blackpool to take on Lancashire.

In fact, there will be no easy ties as the remaining teams reach the business end of the competition.

The pick of the quarter-final action looks to be the showdown between Worcestershire and Leicestershire at New Road, with both sides in impressive one-day form this season.

Andy Bichel, Graeme Hick and Vikram Solanki all have the ability to swing the game in the home side's favour but Leicestershire will call on Pakistan star Shahid Afridi to produce the fireworks he is known for in the international one-day game.

Yorkshire, who produced an excellent fightback to overcome Surrey at Headingley in the fourth round, will face Warwickshire at the same ground in a tie certain to set the pulses racing.

The White Rose county have a battery of England fast bowlers at their disposal with which to shake up the visitors, but they also know that Warwickshire have held the Indian sign over them in recent years.

Kent and Somerset complete the quarter-final line-up and one man is certain to take centre stage at Canterbury's St Lawrence Ground.

England opener Marcus Trescothick struck a pulsating 121 off 83 balls as Somerset romped to a seven-wicket win over Glamorgan in the last round, and he will again be the man to watch.

Champions suffer Trophy exit

Defending champions Gloucestershire saw their hopes of retaining the Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy disappear at the fourth round stage as they lost by three runs to Durham at Bristol.

Mark Alleyne's side looked set to overhaul the visitors' 232 all out when they reached 179 for three with 10 overs remaining, but three wickets from Durham youngster Graeme Bridge saw them lose their way.

Yorkshire also appeared to be on their way out of the competition when Surrey reached 131 for two after 25 overs at Headingley, but Chris Silverwood brought the hosts back into contention with three for 44.

Surrey's eventual 243 still seemed to be out of Yorkshire's reach especially at 84 for four – but a superb unbroken stand of 160 between Gary Fellows and Craig White took David Byas' side through.

England opener Marcus Trescothick smashed a pulsating 121 off just 83 balls at Taunton as Somerset overhauled Glamorgan's 269 for six with more than eight overs to spare.

Trescothick and Peter Bowler put on 143 for the first wicket before Jamie Cox added 63 not out to complete the job.

Herefordshire's chances of pulling off another upset were looking promising when Ravi Nagra, who went on to make 105, led the minor county to 179 for four against Worcestershire at New Road.

But the tail collapsed to 210 all out and Graeme Hick, as in the third round against Hertfordshire, took the opportunity to compile a century to see the hosts home with nearly 13 overs remaining.

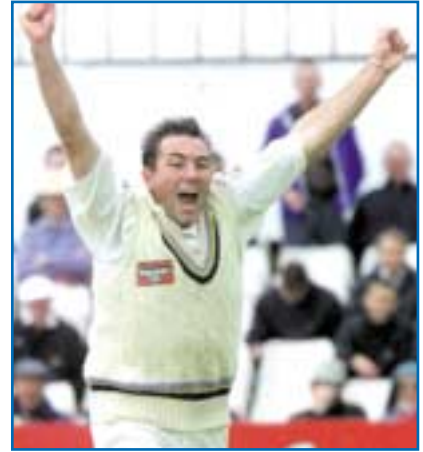

Warwickshire suffered something of a scare at Edgbaston as they slumped to 93 for five while chasing Essex's disappointing 160 all out.

But Dougie Brown (52 not out) and Trevor Penney (29 not out) calmly steered the home side past the winning post.

Kent had fewer problems as they eased their way past a faltering Northamptonshire side that had paceman Paul Taylor to thank for avoiding a total humiliation at Canterbury.

Taylor's 57 helped the visitors recover from 92 for seven to 200 all out, but it was not enough to prevent a six-wicket win by the home side.

It was similarly plain sailing for Leicestershire as they dismissed Nottinghamshire, whose one-day form completely deserted them, for just 176 at Trent Bridge.

Chris Silverwood

Shahid Afridi took two wickets and scored 23 on his Leicestershire debut and captain Vince Wells stroked 54 not out to end the hosts' interest in the competition.

At Old Trafford, Lancashire eased their way into the quarter-finals with a comfortable seven-wicket win over Sussex, who were bundled out for 151.

All-rounder Andrew Flintoff made it easy for the hosts with an unbeaten 65 from 82 balls as Lancashire cruised home with nearly 15 overs left.

Worcestershire v Leicestershire (Live on Sky Sports)

Venue: New Road, tel: 01905 748474. Contact: Joan Grundy, Worcestershire CCC, County Ground, New Road, Worcester, WR2 4QQ.

How they did in 2000 Worcestershire – R3 lost to Gloucestershire by 5 runs

Leicestershire – R3 bt Northumberland by 226 runs, R4 lost to Gloucestershire by 10 runs

WORCESTERSHIRE will come up against first-class opposition for the first time in this season's Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy when they take on Leicestershire at New Road.

The clash pits the leaders of the two divisions of the one-day league against each other and is being eagerly anticipated by Worcestershire coach Tom Moody.

He said: "It is a game we are very much looking forward to. It is great to have a home draw.

"Leicestershire are enjoying a great winning run in one-day cricket and hopefully we can bring that to an end.

"Our form in all one-day games has been very good. We have had some good wins and hopefully we can keep that going.

"Obviously Graeme Hick has been in good form in all forms of cricket but the players have all played well.

"Like every other team we would love to be at Lord's but there are a lot of critical games to be played before then."

Leicestershire captain Vince Wells is confident the quarter-final clash will be one to savour.

"It will be a huge game of cricket," he said. "We're happy with our one-day form and we know we're playing good cricket this year.

"But Worcestershire are looking good too and they've certainly got dangermen in the likes of Bichel, Hick and Solanki.

"They'll obviously be prepared for this, but so will we because there's a place in the semi-finals at stake."

Kent v Somerset (Live on Channel 4)

Venue: Canterbury, tel: 01227 456886 Contact: Simon Willis, Kent CCC, St Lawrence Ground, Canterbury, CT1 3NZ

How they did in 2000 Kent – R3 bt Cumberland by 6 wkts, R4 lost to Glamorgan by 5 wkts
Somerset – R3 bt Shropshire by 27 runs, R4 lost to Middlesex by 165 runs

SOMERSET captain Jamie Cox reckons his side are capable of going all the way in the Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy this season.

Cox leads his troops into battle against Kent at Canterbury in a quarter-final clash to savour, with both sides very much in excellent one-day form.

Kent cruised to a six-wicket victory over a sorry Northamptonshire side while Glamorgan suffered the hammer blows of Marcus Trescothick's bat in the last round.

And Cox says the England opener will once again be a vital factor for his side.

"He'll be a key player in every side he's in for the rest of his career," he enthused.

"And he's a fantastic player for our side. We're going OK at the moment although we've dropped a few games we shouldn't have this season.

"It's too early to start talking about silverware but we've certainly got a side capable of winning this competition."

Somerset must first overcome Kent before they can allow themselves to dream of a return trip to Lord's, and they will face a tough test at the St Lawrence Ground.

Kent captain Matthew Fleming said: "We've already beaten Somerset once this season and I'm sure they'll be talking about us as much as we'll be talking about them.

"It would be nice to go to Lord's this year but we're still two games away from that. We're having a good season and it would be lovely to win."

LANCASHIRE coach Bobby Simpson says his side are confident of success in this season's Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy.

Simpson's men take on Durham with revenge in the air after Lancashire lost out to Martyn Moxon's side in the one-day league in May.

And the Aussie coach reckons the time is right for the Red Rose county to get their own back.

"We're going to approach the game in a very aggressive, very confident manner," he said.

"I think we've turned the corner now, we're out of the maze in terms of the one-day game. We've started to play very well and we're obviously growing in confidence.

"And once you get on a run in this competition, you fancy you can go all the way."

A Robbie Williams concert at Old Trafford means the two sides will meet at Blackpool Cricket Club, and Simpson is looking forward to his trip to the seaside.

He added: "There'll be a good crowd up there who'll provide some fantastic support. It should be packed out."

Durham coach Moxon said: "We'll go to Blackpool with confidence having beaten Gloucestershire in the last round.

"But we won't be over-confident as we know Lancashire are one of the best teams in the country and their record in one-day cricket is very good, so we'll have to play at our best.

"We've beaten them twice already this year but that won't have too much bearing on the outcome of this one."

Yorkshire v Warwickshire

Venue: Headingley, tel: 0113 278 7394 Contact: David Ryder, Yorkshire CCC, Headingley Cricket Ground, Leeds, LS6 3BU.

How they did in 2000 Yorkshire – R3 bt Yorkshire CB by 130 runs, R4 lost to Northamptonshire by 69 runs
Warwickshire – R3 bt Essex CB by 11 runs, R4 bt Derbyshire by 40 runs, QF bt Glamorgan by 81 runs
SF bt Hampshire by 19 runs, FINAL lost to Gloucestershire by 22 runs (D/L)

YORKSHIRE and Warwickshire lock horns at Headingley in a clash made all the more intriguing by the fact they will meet in a one-day league game two days earlier.

And with so much at stake at the Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy quarter-final stage, Warwickshire coach Bob Woolmer says tactics will be vital to success.

"It's a big game, and with another game against Yorkshire two days before we'll have to get our strategy right," he said.

"We're playing good cricket at the moment which we want to carry forward into the game, although the result will be largely determined by the result of Monday's fixture.

"Whoever wins that will have a big psychological advantage, but there will be a few other factors involved, like the pitch.

"And although Yorkshire have had something of an up and down season in the one-day game, they're still a very good side."

Yorkshire captain David Byas admitted his side has room for improvement despite their impressive victory over Surrey in the fourth round.

He said: "The lads have been buoyed by the result against Surrey but we're still conscious of areas of weakness.

"We'll be hoping to cement our game – maybe we need to relax and chill out more.

"But it will be a difficult fixture against Warwickshire. They're a wonderful one-day side and their record speaks for itself. It's anybody's game."

THE DUCKWORTH/LEWIS SYSTEM

All Cheltenham & Gloucester Trophy matches have a reserve day, but if play is still lost to the weather the Duckworth Lewis system can be used to reset targets. The system is based on what percentage of its resources (overs and wickets) a team have left.

With 50 overs left and 10 wickets remaining, a team has 100 per cent of its resources left. The table shows the percentage of resources at other stages in the innings.

The procedure for working out targets is as follows:

- 1) For each innings: Use the table to calculate the resource percentage lost by the interruption and therefore calculate the resource percentage still available.
- 2) If team 2 have less resources available than team 1, calculate the ratio of the resources available to both teams. Team 2's revised target is obtained by scaling down team 1's score by this ratio.
- 3) If team 2 have more resources available than team 1, calculate the amount by which team 2's resources exceeds team 1's. Work this out as a percentage of 225 (the average 50-over score in ECB matches and one-day internationals). This gives the extra runs to add to team 1's score to give team 2's target.

WICKETS LOST	0	2	5	7	9
OVERS LEFT
50	100	83.8	49.5	26.5	7.6
40	90.3	77.6	48.3	26.4	7.6
30	77.1	68.2	45.7	26.2	7.6
25	68.5	61.8	43.4	25.9	7.6
20	58.9	54.0	40.0	25.2	7.6
10	34.1	32.5	27.5	20.6	7.5

PLAYING CONDITIONS

- One innings per side of up to 50 overs. A maximum of 10 overs per bowler.
- Scheduled hours of play 11am to 6.45pm. Each innings scheduled to last a maximum three hours and 45 minutes. There will normally be two sessions of play of three hours and 30 minutes each, with an interval from 2.30pm to 3.25pm. The interval will be reduced if necessary.
- Two drinks intervals per innings, but these can be cancelled to make up time lost to interruptions.
- The fielding side can be penalised for slow over rates by the addition of runs to the batting side's total.
- For the first 15 overs a minimum of seven fielders plus the bowler and wicket-keeper must be inside the fielding circle as the ball is bowled. For the rest of the innings a minimum of four fielders plus the bowler and wicket-keeper must be inside the circle. The restrictions are lifted earlier when the number of overs is reduced.
- In the event of a tie, the team losing fewer wickets will win. If the sides are still level, the higher score after 15 overs will win.
- In rounds one and two, run rate may be used to set a revised target after a suspension of play. From round three onwards, the Duckworth Lewis system will be used.
