

● TITLE HOPEFULS GO HEAD TO HEAD

Leicestershire Foxes will be looking to take another huge step towards securing the Norwich Union League crown when they take on second-placed Kent Spitfires on Sunday.

The Foxes, who last claimed the title in 1977, have made their best ever start to the season, winning eight from eight while building a four-point advantage over the Spitfires, and an eight-point cushion over Warwickshire Bears in third.

With a game in hand over Matthew Fleming's side, the Foxes know that if they were to collect another four points from their trip to the St Lawrence Ground they would have established a commanding lead at the top.

But Kent, with James Hockley looking to impress again, clearly have their own agenda, and can put the pressure firmly back on Shahid Afridi and co by picking up their seventh victory of the season.

Two sides who will be looking to give their Norwich Union League campaigns a much-needed boost and move away from the Division One drop-zone are Yorkshire Phoenix and Surrey Lions.

David Byas' Phoenix team showed explosive form in their last game to beat Warwickshire Bears by 173 runs. And they will be looking for a repeat performance, with a little help from all-rounder Gavin Hamilton, against the Lions at Headingley as only their superior run-rate over Somerset Sabres is keeping them out of the relegation places.

Adam Hollioake's Lions have won just one game all season and are already eight points from a position of safety and staring an immediate return to Division Two in the face.

The division's other match features reigning champions Gloucestershire Gladiators, who are still not safe from the drop, and the out-of-form Northamptonshire Steelbacks, who lie second from bottom.

● HAWKS OUT TO STING SCORPIONS AGAIN

Hampshire Hawks' hopes of claiming the Norwich Union League Division Two title will gather more momentum if they can record their second victory of the season over Derbyshire Scorpions.

Robin Smith's side won the first meeting between the two teams on July 15 by 16 runs to re-affirm their position as title challengers.

The Hawks are currently in third place, but with games in hand over the teams above them - Durham Dynamos and Worcestershire Royals - they still have realistic hopes of topping the table at the end of the season.

The Scorpions' form has been disappointing this season and they have struggled to make an impact on the Norwich Union League.

The Midlands outfit, with Lian Wharton in their side, have only won three of their 10 matches and their inability to reach the small total of 155 set by the Hawks at the Rose Bowl demonstrates why they are way off the promotion pace in sixth place.

The other Division Two game pits the well-placed Glamorgan Dragons against Lancashire Lightning, who are down in seventh spot.

Steve James has led his Dragons side well this season with Matthew Maynard showing continued form with the bat, and Robert Croft being rewarded for his bowling efforts by an England recall.

But if they are to take advantage of the three games they have in hand over the Royals and the Dynamos they need to inflict more misery on a traditionally strong one-day Lightning side, who will feel that they have under-performed this season.

● CRICKET STARS BACK YOUTH TRAINING SCHEME

Last week, England's cricket captains, Nasser Hussain and Clare Connor went back to basics and joined up with a number of youngsters at the Lilian Bayliss School in London, to take part in the launch of a nationwide grassroots cricket scheme - Norwich Union Inter Cricket Summer Schools.

There are 27 Norwich Union Inter Cricket Summer Schools taking place all across England and Wales over the next few weeks. Organised through the England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) and County Cricket Clubs, the Summer Schools are three-day training sessions for 11-16 year olds focusing on teaching children basic cricketing skills through playing Inter Cricket.

At the launch Nasser Hussain said: "This scheme provides a much-needed opportunity to develop cricketing skills at grassroots level. The key to being a successful cricketing nation is based on both the number of children we can involve in the game and the quality of the training they receive. Schemes like the Norwich Union Inter Cricket Summer Schools help to answer this need, giving high quality coaching in a fun, relaxed environment. In years to come we hope to see someone who attended a Norwich Union Inter Cricket Summer School playing for England."

A young hopeful shows what the futures holds for English cricket

The game of Inter Cricket was launched last summer by the ECB with support from Norwich Union. It has created great interest with both schools and clubs, as it bridges the gap between Kwik Cricket and the hard ball game. The format gives all players a chance to bat, bowl and experience cricket but also incorporates 'real cricket' tactics providing an inspirational link to the senior game. For example, it has a minimum of eight players a side, four bowlers must be used and although batsmen must retire after 15 runs (you can hit a six on 14 to take you to 20) they are allowed back when the last batter remains.

Clare Connor, captain of the England women's cricket team also supports the wider use of the new game. She said: "The appeal of Inter Cricket is that it gives children the chance to play cricket in a fun environment. Because it can be played almost anywhere, everyone can participate whether they are from the inner city or a small country village. We hope to see the results of the Inter Cricket experience in the England sides in years to come."

Bill Reynolds, Norwich Union Sponsorship Executive, said: "Inter Cricket forms an integral part of Norwich Union's commitment to cricket. Through the scheme we are able to offer important grassroots level support in addition to our support of the senior game through the Norwich Union League."

The Norwich Union Inter Cricket Summer Schools also follow an extremely successful series of nationwide indoor cricket festivals held throughout April and May this year.

To join a Norwich Union Inter Cricket Summer School children or parents should contact the relevant County Cricket Development Officer.

GLOUCESTERSHIRE GLADIATORS versus NORTHANTS STEELBACKS

MATCH PREVIEW

Northamptonshire Steelbacks face the unenviable task of having to conquer champions Gloucestershire Gladiators in order to brighten their bleak outlook in the Norwich Union League.

David Ripley's men have won just twice in eight outings, but gave their hopes of survival a much-needed boost with a comfortable eight-wicket victory over fellow strugglers Surrey Lions.

Australian Mike Hussey, who has replaced fellow countryman Matthew Hayden as the club's overseas player, has been in devastating form this season and smashed a memorable 96 from 88 balls against the Lions.

And the Steelbacks can take heart from the fact that Mark Alleyne's team are not yet safe from the drop themselves having been beaten in five of their 10 matches played so far.

The Gladiators will again look to experienced opener Kim Barnett after his century helped them secure a 116-run win over Nottinghamshire Outlaws.

KENT SPITFIRES versus LEICESTERSHIRE FOXES

MATCH PREVIEW

Leicestershire Foxes' hopes of securing a first Norwich Union League title for 23 years will improve dramatically if they can overcome second-placed Kent Spitfires.

Vince Wells' side have powered their way to eight wins from eight games, opening up a four-point gap at the top of the table, and they also have a game in hand over the Spitfires.

Matthew Fleming's side saw their aims of keeping pace with the Foxes dented on July 22 when they lost by five wickets at Grace Road and a repeat of that result at Kent's St Lawrence Ground could be decisive.

The recent addition of Pakistan's Shahid Afridi has added extra zest to the Foxes' title bid, and the Spitfires will need no reminding of Afridi's stunning debut after he hit 70 runs off 32 balls.

But the Spitfires have a big-hitter of their own in Australian Andrew Symonds, who is still to catch fire this season.

YORKSHIRE PHOENIX versus SURREY LIONS

MATCH PREVIEW

Rock-bottom Surrey Lions are out to ease their relegation fears by upsetting the odds and defeating an improving Yorkshire Phoenix side at Headingley.

Adam Hollioake's team have endured a torrid season in the Norwich Union League and are eight points away from a position of safety having won only one of their opening 10 matches.

An immediate drop back to Division Two looks on the cards for the Lions unless they can pick up four points against the Phoenix, who themselves are far from safe.

David Byas' troops are lying in sixth place, with only their superior run-rate over Somerset Sabres keeping them out of the drop zone.

But their last outing will have given them a massive morale boost as they trounced the high-flying Warwickshire Bears by 173 runs in a day/night rout at Headingley.

Chris Silverwood took 4 for 21 as the Bears were shot out for just 59, but he has since struggled with injury, leaving the door open for Ryan Sidebottom and Steve Kirby to impress.

DERBYSHIRE SCORPIONS versus HAMPSHIRE HAWKS

MATCH PREVIEW

Hampshire Hawks will be aiming to continue their push for promotion to Division One of the Norwich Union League when they come up against the Derbyshire Scorpions.

The Hawks are currently in third place, but with two games in hand over the teams above them - Durham Dynamos and Worcestershire Royals - they still have realistic hopes of topping the table at the end of the season.

Robin Smith's side can travel to Derby full of confidence having beaten the Scorpions by 16 runs at the Rose Bowl on July 15.

The Scorpions have since suffered another big defeat under stand-in captain Michael Di Venuto, going down by six wickets to Glamorgan Dragons, although Dominic Cork will be back to lead the side this weekend.

If the Midlanders are to begin turning their lagging league campaign around they will need to produce a stronger batting display, having failed to reach the target of 155 they were set by the Hawks last time out.

GLAMORGAN DRAGONS versus LANCASHIRE LIGHTNING

MATCH PREVIEW

Fourth-placed Glamorgan Dragons can consolidate their promotion push from Division Two of the Norwich Union League by overcoming Lancashire Lightning.

And with three games in hand over the top two of Worcestershire Royals and Durham Dynamos, captain Steve James still retains hopes of making a challenge for the league title.

Despite losing a closely-fought game with the Dynamos on July 8, the Dragons have looked impressive in their recent Norwich Union League matches, and recorded a comprehensive six-wicket win over Derbyshire Scorpions last time out.

Matthew Maynard is in fine form with the bat, and will be looking to help his side repeat their four-wicket win over the Lightning at Old Trafford in May.

After the misery of last season's relegation, the Lightning were expected to be among the promotion contenders this time around.

But despite the undoubted one-day talents of Andy Flintoff, Neil Fairbrother and Peter Martin, they are struggling down in seventh spot.

THE DUCKWORTH/LEWIS SYSTEM

If matches are rain-affected the Duckworth Lewis system is used to reset targets. The system is based on what percentage of its resources (overs and wickets) a team have left. With 50 overs left and 10 wickets remaining, a team has 100 per cent of its resources left. The table shows the percentage of resources at other stages in the innings.

The procedure for working out targets is as follows:

1) For each innings: Use the table to calculate the resource percentage lost by the interruption and therefore calculate the resource percentage still available.

2) If team 2 have less resources available than team 1, calculate the ratio of the resources available to both teams. Team 2's revised target is obtained by scaling down team 1's score by this ratio.

3) If team 2 have more resources available than team 1, calculate the amount by which team 2's resources exceeds team 1's.

Work this out as a percentage of 225 (the average 50-over score in ECB matches and one-day internationals). This gives the extra runs to add to team score to give team 2's target.

HOW THE NORWICH UNION LEAGUE WORKS

The Norwich Union League operates on a three-up, three-down basis with the top three finishers in Division Two replacing the bottom three in Division One. Four points are awarded for a win, while teams will take two points each if matches are tied or the weather intervenes before the required number of overs have been completed and there is no result.

Matches will start at 1pm and end at 7.10pm with 45 overs per side, although all fixtures will begin 30 minutes earlier in September. Floodlit games will start at 4.10pm. The free-hit rule for no-balls applies to front-foot no-balls only. A batsman cannot be dismissed from the bowler's next delivery after such an infringement.

This season teams will face penalties for slow over rates. If in the opinion of the umpire there are still overs to be bowled at the cut-off point then six runs will be added to the batting team for every over left to be bowled. If at cut-off time there are still four overs left to be bowled then 24 runs will be added to the batting team's score. The batting team will then go on and finish their overs. These will appear as penalty runs on the scorecard. If this takes the batting team over the target required then the match will finish at that point.
